Lab 7:

Introduction to HTML (Basic Concept, Code and Syntax)

Lab Tasks:

Create an HTML Web Page with the name "My Essay". The page must have everything aligned to the center, it must have your Name as the title and registration number as subheading (smaller heading) underneath the heading. Then write a short essay (at least 100 words) about any topic you like, you should apply bold, italic and underline in the paragraph and insert at least two pictures about the topic. At the end of the page there should be an email link as well. The page must have the following elements in use:

Title

Heading

Paragraph (should have different font and font size +3)

Image (multiple images related to your topic)

Email/link

Font

Background image/color

Text color

Bold/italic and underline

NOTE: This Lab task should be uploaded as an .HTML FILE. The Picture(s) used should also be uploaded so that I could check it properly.
